

Please look after this bear!

Should Paddington be allowed to stay in the UK?

produced by Kiri Tunks - East London

Is Paddington Bear...

- A migrant?
- A refugee?
- What is the difference?
- Does the difference matter?

produced by Kiri Tunks - East London

Paddington Bear: the facts

He's from Darkest Peru

He doesn't know anyone

He's a cub

His parents are dead

He has no money

He has no papers

His home was destroyed in an earthquake

He stowed away illegally on a boat

He speaks English

His guardian is old and in a home for retired bears

Statelessness

nation

refugee passport

state

society

citizen civilian boundaries

nationality

native

country

identity

people

citizenship

migrant

Should Paddington be allowed to stay in the UK?

Team A: Yes!

- Brainstorm ideas that support your case that Paddington should stay
- Add some details to your ideas
- Now, try and identify what arguments the opposition will use.
- How will you counter these ideas?

Team B: No!

- Brainstorm ideas that support your case that Paddington should be sent back to Peru
- Add some details to your ideas
- Now, try and identify what arguments the opposition will use.
- How will you counter these ideas?

You have to leave your home.
You may never return.

What 5 things would you pack?

MIGRATION

IS NOT A CRIME

produced by Kiri Tunks - East London

Links

London is the Place for me - calypso song from the film <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lbGkuaZPbOU>

This is what refugees are bringing (what would you pack?)
<http://www.independent.co.uk/news/this-is-what-refugees-are-bringing-to-europe-10491496.html>

Paddington Trailer – use this to run a second vote – do voters change when they ‘know’ the bear <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=X-d-V9jXYDE>