

LGBT+ inclusion:

Specialist support and resources

There are plenty of places to get support, information and resources on LGBT+ inclusion.

NEU recommended resources

AGENDA, helps children and young people think about and understand relationships using a rights-based, inclusive framework

Breaking the mould, a resource for nursery and primary setting members on challenging gender stereotypes

Every child, every family A list of LGBT+ inclusive literature with summaries and suggestions of how to incorporate the book into your teaching

“ In my former school the RSE curriculum was written by a subject specialist and did briefly cover LGBT+ relationships. The staff members delivering the curriculum were not subject specialists and did not feel confident in delivering the key messages.”

Classroom teacher

“ Training made many LGBT staff feel confident to be open about their own relationships and to challenge pupils’ views. If they asked “Do you have a wife/husband?” in a heteronormative fashion, they felt they could openly say “No I have a *insert same sex marriage here.”

Classroom teacher

Other resources

GLSEN

Stonewall

The classroom

Guardian teachers

Other organisations

Just like Us: Provide role models visiting schools, resource packs, workshops and support for Schools Diversity Week

Educate and Celebrate: Workshops, staff training and youth network

Schools Out: Training, conferences and networks

Proud Trust: Training for young people and education resources

Mosaic Youth: Training for staff, workshops and mentoring

Gendered intelligence: Training and workshops

Mermaids: Whole schools’ approach, workshops and training

Diversity Role Models: Whole schools’ approach, workshops and training.